The research scholarship is for 14 months, with the possibility of renewal in accordance with the law. Admission to the selection process, and the selection procedure itself, are governed by the following Articles.

The grant holder will have to work with the Local Research Team of Expect 1 and Expect 2 to complete the activities foreseen in the research protocols VAC52416BAC0005 and VAC52416BAC0006 which include: a) collaborate with GPs in the follow-up (through telephone contacts and / or outpatient visits)of the patients enrolled in the first phase of the project; b) Check the criteria for inclusion among patients admitted to the reference hospital (University Hospital of Verona) affected by IED and collect relevant clinical data. The grant holder will be responsible for entering the data in the dedicated database; the cataloging of microbiological bacterial strains and their shipment; the inclusion of patients and the compilation of the database following telephone contacts according to the provisions of the protocol. The grant holder will participate in all the meetings planned by the project and will contribute to the development of reports and data disseminations (abstracts and scientific works).

ART. 2 – REQUIREMENTS

For admission to the selection process referred to in Art. 1, potential candidates must fulfil the following requirements:

- a) PhD or Master’s degree [Laurea Magistrale awarded pursuant to Art. 3(1n), Ministerial Decree no. 270 of 22/10/04] or previous Master’s degree [Laurea Specialistica awarded pursuant to Art. 3(1b), Ministerial Decree no. 509 of 03/11/99] or previous Bachelor’s degree [awarded pursuant to the teaching systems prior to Ministerial Decree no. 509 of 03/11/99, at the conclusion of a study programme at least 4 years in length], and a suitable academic and professional background for conducting research;

b) Knowledge of the following foreign language: English

Both Italian and foreign nationals are admitted to the selection process, as long as the latter have the equivalent qualifications or an ideal academic and professional background for the intended research. (If a candidate has not applied for official recognition of equivalency in the Italian system for any qualifications gained abroad, the suitability of their academic and professional background will be evaluated by the Selection Committee.)

Those with any relationship to, or ties with, a professor of the Director of the the Department of Diagnostics and Public Health , the Rector, the Director-General or any member of the university Board of Directors, up to the fourth degree inclusive, may not participate.

The scholarship may not be awarded to any permanent staff of universities, public institutions or public entities for research and experimentation, the National Agency for New Technologies, Energy and Sustainable Economic Development (ENEA) or the Italian Space Agency (ASI), nor to permanent staff at any institution whose advanced academic degree has been recognised as equivalent to a PhD pursuant to Art. 74(4), Presidential Decree no. 382 of 11/07/80.

In order to be admitted to the selection process, potential candidates must meet the stated requirements at the time of the application deadline. Failure to meet these requirements may result in the applicant being excluded from the selection process with due decree by the Rector.

ART. 3 – APPLICATIONS AND RULES FOR SUBMISSION

Applications, written on plain paper following the outline attached to this call for applications (appendix: Form A) and addressed to the Director of the the Department of Diagnostics and Public Health may be submitted in the following way:

- Sending the documentation in pdf format, to the e-mail address ufficio.protocollo@pec.univr.it, within the peremptory deadline indicated above. The submission may also be made by an unaudited electronic mail address.

No other forms of application submission are admitted.

All applications, by whichever of the above means they are submitted, must be received by the strict deadline of 1 pm, 30 days after the call for applications is concurrently published in the electronically on the web page: <http://www.univr.it/it/albo-ufficiale>. If the deadline falls on a public holiday, it will be postponed to the next working day.

In respecting this deadline, for applications sent by mail, the post office postmark date will not be regarded. Therefore, any applications received after the given deadline will not be considered in the selection process.

Pursuant to Art. 76, Presidential Decree 445/2000 and aware of the criminal penalties for false statements, candidates must state in their application:

- 1) their name and surname;
- 2) their date and place of birth;
- 3) their permanent address, including street name, street number, city, province, postcode, telephone number, tax identification number and email address;
- 4) the number of the selection process in which they wish to participate;
- 5) their nationality;
- 6) that they have no prior criminal convictions, or otherwise report any criminal convictions (even if they have been granted amnesty, cancellation, pardon or legal pardon) or criminal proceedings against them;

- 7) that they have the required qualification as given in Art. 2 of this call for applications, and state the qualification and the date and place where it was awarded. Foreign nationals must also specify if their qualification, if it was awarded abroad, has received official recognition for equivalency to an Italian qualification;
- 8) that they fulfil the other requirements specified in Art. 2 of this call for applications;
- 9) only for those unable to go to the interview site on the date on which the selection is held, to request to make the interview via videoconference;
- 10) their contact address for the purpose of the application.

Administration does not assume any responsibility if the applicant is unable to be contacted or for the loss of documents due to errors in the address provided by the applicant, or for a failure to/delay in notifying a change of the address stated in the application, nor for any postal delivery errors or otherwise which are attributable to third parties, unforeseeable circumstances or force majeure. In any case, any applications which are not signed or that, for any reason, including force majeure, are received by the University of Verona after the above mentioned deadline, will not be considered.

For the evaluation of qualifications and experience, candidates must attach to their application:

- 1) a declaration in lieu of an affidavit regarding their qualifications gained (PhD and/or Master's degree or Bachelor's degree), stating the award date, the issuing university and any grade reported.
- 2) their academic and professional CV, publications and relevant qualifications as per Art. 6 of this call for applications;
- 3) a list of the documents and publications attached to their application.

The aforementioned documents must be submitted by the application deadline as plain paper photocopies accompanied by a statement that they are identical to the original. Alternatively, the candidate may produce a substitutive declaration reporting the important information contained in these documents. For this, candidates may use appendix Form B, also attaching a plain paper photocopy of their valid ID document.

Administration reserves the right to perform checks to verify the truthfulness of substitutive declarations. If such investigations reveal that any declarations are false, the applicant will be excluded from any benefits they may have been awarded from provisions made on the basis of the false declaration, notwithstanding the provisions of Art. 76, Presidential Decree no. 445/2000.

Pursuant to Law no. 104 of 05/02/92, candidates with a disability must make a specific request in their application regarding any aid required, as well as any additional time that may necessary to complete the test.

The signature at the bottom of the application is not subject to authentication, in accordance with Presidential Decree no. 445/2000.

ART. 4 – EXCLUSION FROM THE SELECTION PROCESS

Candidates are admitted to the selection process under the condition that the Rector may with due reason exclude those who do not fulfil the selection requirements from the selection process at any time.

ART. 5 – SELECTION COMMITTEE

The Selection Committee, made up of three members (lecturers or experts in the disciplinary sector related to the subject, or similar) as established by Art. 20 (1b) of the Regulations referred to in the introduction, shall be constituted after the expiry of the call and its composition will be made known promptly by means of a Directorial Decree and will be made public through electronic publication on the website, referred to at the link: <http://www.univr.it/it/albo-ufficiale>.

ART. 6 – SELECTION PROCEDURE

The selection procedure takes into consideration an evaluation of each candidate's qualifications and experience, as well as an interview. For the evaluation, the Selection Committee can award up to 100 points to each candidate: up to 60 points for the written documents submitted (proof of qualifications and experience) and up to 40 points for the interview.

Candidates are considered suitable if they gain at least 35 points for qualifications/experience and at least 25 points for the interview.

Candidates' qualifications and experience will be evaluated before the interview, based on the documents submitted.

Points for qualifications and experience will be allocated as follows:

• Laurea Magistrale (Ministerial Decree 270/04), Laurea Specialistica (Ministerial Decree 509/99), Bachelor's degree (pre Ministerial Decree 509/99) or foreign equivalents	Max. points	20
• PhD	Max. points	10
• Academic publications	Max. points	15
• Work experience in the research field	Max. points	10
• Other qualifications	Max. points	05
TOTAL	points	60

The interview will focus on the following topics:

Epidemiology and surveillance of antibiotic-resistant infections with particular reference to urinary tract infections, good knowledge of the English language, experience with observational studies; management of European research projects; scientific communication activities

During the interview, the candidate's knowledge of English language will be checked.

To take part in the interview, candidates must provide a current, valid ID document.

Candidates who do not show an ID document or have only an expired ID document will not be admitted to the interview.

The interviews will take place in SEZIONE DI MALATTIE INFETTIVE, POLICLINICO G.B. ROSSI – Edificio SUD Indirizzo presso cui spedire il materiale relativo alla selezione: Policlinico G.B. Rossi, Dipartimento di Diagnostica e Sanità Pubblica. P. le L.A. Scuro 10 37134Verona (VR) at 11.00 p.m. on 27th November 2020

Candidates, by selecting the appropriate option in the application form (appendix: Form A), may request to make the interview by videoconference. In this case, they will also have to indicate their Skype contact in the application form, which will be used by the Admissions Committee for the interview, and to guarantee the use of a webcam to allow the Selection Committee to identify them.

The results of the selection process will be communicated to the candidates by the Selection Committee after the interview.

The candidate who wins the scholarship must contact giovanni.baietta@univr.it within 30 november.

ART. 7 – RANKING LIST

The steps of the selection procedure, including the ranking list, shall be approved by Directorial Decree. The ranking list will be concurrently published in the Official University Register (Via dell'Artigliere 8, Verona) and electronically on the web page: <http://www.univr.it/it/albo-ufficiale>.

ART. 8 – CONTRACT

Research scholarships are awarded through the stipulation of a personal contract for research collaboration. Such contracts do not imply any form of employment and do not give the holder any priority for accessing permanent university positions.

Recipients who do not present themselves by the specified date, do not sign the contract or do not start the research at the determined time shall lose their right to the scholarship, except in cases provided for by the university's "Regulations for the Awarding of Research Scholarship Collaborations" referred to in the introduction.

The scholarship recipient's responsibilities are those established in the aforementioned University Regulations. In particular, the scholarship recipient shall collaborate on research regarding the project for which this call for applications was announced.

The total amount of the scholarship, net of administrative burden, is € 28.490,00, to be paid to the recipient in deferred monthly instalments.

Research scholarships are subject to taxation under the provisions of Art. 4, Law 476/84 and subsequent amendments and additions, as well as social security, under the provisions of Art. 2(26) and following of Law 335/95 and subsequent amendments and additions.

The University provides insurance cover of accidents related to conducting the research. The expenses are to be paid by the scholarship recipient and the premium is deducted from the scholarship amount. The University also provides cover for third party liability, the expenses being covered by the university.

Scholarships cannot be accumulated with other scholarships of any kind, except those granted by national or foreign institutions that are intended to contribute towards conducting a part of the recipient's research assignment abroad.

At the time of signing and for the total duration of the contract, scholarship recipients may not be employed, nor may they establish an employment contract, even temporary, with any private entity or public administration. Should they be already employed, a scholarship contract will not be stipulated unless the recipient is put on leave without pay by their employer by a date given by the University.

Provided they perform their assigned tasks, scholarship recipients may carry out professional activities or other independent work if this is authorised beforehand by the Board of the Department/Research Centre, having consulted with the academic supervisor, and provided that the activity:

- is compatible with conducting research activities;
- does not represent a conflict of interest with the specific research being conducted by the scholarship recipient;
- does not lead to prejudice to the University in relation to the activities being carried out.

Scholarship recipients may not attend Bachelor's, Master's or PhD programmes with a scholarship, nor medical specialisation programmes, in Italy or abroad.

ART. 9 – RECLAIMING OF DOCUMENTS AND PUBLICATIONS

Applicants must arrange to collect the documents and publications they sent to the University at their own cost, within four months of the Directorial Decree approving the procedure and the ranking list, unless the process is contended. Once such time has passed, the University is no longer responsible for keeping the material attached to applications.

ART. 10 – SAFEGUARD PROVISIONS

For matters not provided for by this announcement, please refer to the relevant applicable provisions insofar as compatible.

The information sent by candidates to apply for the selection process will be used exclusively for this procedure and any proceedings to allocate the scholarships in question, in compliance with the current legislation on the processing of personal data.

This call for applications shall be publically published in the Official University Register situated in Via dell'Artigliere 8, Verona, and at the same time posted electronically on the web page:
<http://www.univr.it/it/albo-ufficiale>.
