Students may choose all courses but they are not authorized to take DU courses, UEL, Master MEEF

The courses in the English department (including courses of English for students in applied languages) have been regrouped under larger headings worth 8 to 10 credits, which has affected some of the learning agreements. The students have to choose the UE and not the separate UF.

Registration in Exams

The students in exchange have to register for the exams with the international office of the UFR Lettres, Arts et Sciences Humaines.
