

ANNOUNCEMENT

INTERNATIONALIZATION 2020-2021 For students with Doctoral Scholarship

Article 1

The PhD School of Law and Economics encourages PhD students of the University of Verona to carry out research activities at a foreign university or an equivalent foreign research center.

Recipients: students enrolled in PhD courses with administrative headquarters at the University of Verona, PhD School of Law and Economics. The mobility period must be carried out and completed during the regular enrollment period.

Mobility must take place between October 15, 2020 and December 5, 2021.

Article 2

Students enrolled in a PhD course could spend a continuous period of not less than one month at a foreign institution and apply for funding for a maximum period of 6 months. The period of stay abroad may still be greater than the financed period.

PhD students scholarship holders maximum contribution required:
European destination	destination outside Europe (including Switzerland)
400 €/month	600 €/month
maximum contribution (for a maximum of 6 months): 2400€	Maximum contribution (for a maximum of 6 months): 3600€

Additional economic contributions received by any Italian or foreign body for the same mobility project (eg., scholarships, except for doctoral and regional scholarships; free accommodation; reimbursement of travel expenses; fees, etc.) must be declared in the application in the specific "co-financing" section. This possible co-financing will be considered for the evaluation of the project. The University will finance the difference between the amount granted and the co-financing.

The contribution will be granted to beneficiaries in the form of a scholarship for post-graduate research activities.
