

Excellence Centre on
Law, Technologies and Social Changes (IUSTeC)
Project on 'Automated Process, Law and Responsibility'
(AUDIRR)

International Workshop
ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE AND ALGORITHMIC ACCOUNTABILITY IN THE CYBERSECURITY FRAMEWORK

16th of September 2019, 9.15 | 12.15

Sala D'Ardizzone - School of Law

University of Verona

Via Carlo Montanari, n. 9, 37122, Verona

Programme

9.15 | 9.30 – Greetings and Opening Remarks

Stefano Troiano (Director of the School of Law - University of Verona)

Marco Torsello (Coordinator of IUSTeC - University of Verona)

Lorenzo Picotti (Scientific Responsible of AUDIRR Excellence Project – University of Verona)

9.30 | 10.00 – Technological Dimension

Luca Viganò (King's College London)

'Explainable Security and Attribution of Cyber-Attacks'

10.00 | 10.30 – Multidisciplinary Dimension

Solange Ghernaouti (University of Losanne)

'Enhancing cybersecurity effectiveness by a complementary interdisciplinary and integrative approach'

10.30 | 11.00 – International Legal Dimension

Antonino Ali (University of Trento)

'Cyber Warfare and Automation in Military Operations (Armed Conflicts and Hybrid Warfare)'

11.00 | 12.00

Discussants

Roberto Flor, Elisa Lorenzetto, Ivan Salvadori, Isabella Pierangeli Borletti
(University of Verona)

12.00 | 12.15

Closing Remarks

Lorenzo Picotti (University of Verona)

The discussion is subject to the Chatham House Rule

Working languages: Italian, French, English

Scientific Responsible: Prof. Lorenzo Picotti

Organising Committee: Isabella Pierangeli Borletti, Roberto Flor, Ivan Salvadori