PL KATOWIC01:

- Incoming Erasmus students have to take main part of their workload from the US faculty and department that coordinates the bilateral agreement. Some additional workload can be made up of courses from different faculties.
- Incoming teaching Staff must be individually accepted by the US faculty and department that coordinates the bilateral agreement. The acceptance will be based on the candidate's working plan and its adequacy to the teaching programme of the US host didactic unit.
- Incoming non-teaching staff must be individually accepted by the department, service or unit concerned, based on the proposed working plan and the availability of the department, service or unit to host visitors.
- The University of Silesia in Katowice places the utmost importance on providing equal opportunities for people with disabilities. Our university is constantly re-examining the needs of students and employees with disabilities and the challenges they may encounter during their studies and work. We are committed to ensuring equal access to sources of knowledge, new educational programs, modern technological Solutions and the appropriate conditions of studies and work.
