Please note:	 BA students will only receive ECTS credits if they complete courses at the host institution. Therefore, they will not receive any ECTS credits from the host institution for BA-related research they undertake. The home institution is responsible for accrediting BA students with ECTS credits for research completed at the host institution. Master students need to send a bachelor certificate OR a transcript of records with 180 ECTS credits to incoming@fu-berlin.de. All master programs are consecutive master programs at D BERLIN o1. A consecutive master's program builds on a previously completed bachelor's program in the same field. MA students will only receive ECTS credits if they complete courses at the host institution. Accommodation and Living Costs

Please note that finding accommodation has become increasingly difficult in Berlin, so that we recommend incoming students to tackle the issue early when preparing their stay in Berlin.

On-campus Accommodation
Application Procedure	http://www.fu-berlin.de/en/sites/unterbringung/
Living Costs	While Erasmus students do not pay study or registration fees, they are required to pay social fees and the public transport ticket ("Semesterticket"), which is valid for one term. This payment must be made before or during the personal enrolment. Exemption from the public transport ticket is not possible.
	https://www.fu- berlin.de/en/studium/international/studium_fu/auslandssemester/erasmus_in/info s_incomingstudents/gebuehren_beitraege_exchange.html
	Furthermore, every German household is required by law to pay the so-called "GEZ Gebühr"(television license). In almost all cases, Erasmus students are required to contribute to the household television license:

Pick-up service is not provided to exchange students upon arrival. We recommend that students use the public transport website (www.bvg.de/index.php/en/index.html) in order to plan their journey from the airports or the main train station to their respective accommodation.
