place in the last week of the lectures or the week afterwards. Please note, they may also take place later (e.g. in Engineering subjects or Economics).

Course Catalogue https://international.ruhr-uni-bochum.de/en/course-catalogue

Language Proficiency Most of the courses at RUB are taught in German. However, there are also some courses taught in English that are published in our International Course Catalogue. Students should have good language skills (at least BI/B2) in order they can follow the classes.

More information on language requirements can be found here.

Language courses During the semester, exchange students have the chance to attend language courses free of charge:

German

Other languages

Credit System Courses at RUB are credited with credit points (CP). I CP is equal to

I ECTS (= 30 working hours).

Grading System RUB uses the German grades from I-5 (I = very good, 5 = fail).

There are some faculties using percentages (0-100%).

Master's Thesis / Project For students who intend on completing a project or a Master's thesis, it is important to establish contact with a supervisor at RUB before arrival. The International Office can help finding a supervisor. In order to contact the right department, we need to know which subject your project is going to be.

Tuition Fees There are no tuition fees at RUB. However, each student must pay the so-called social contribution fee (approx. €360 per semester). This includes the semester ticket for public transportation throughout Germany (no ICE/IC trains).

RUB: Services, Offers, Diversity and Inclusion

AstA The General Student Committee (AstA) is the representation of the students at RUB.

Psychological Study Counselling The Psychological Study Counselling Service in the Peer

Quarter offers workshops and support for students in difficult situations.

Anti-Discrimination Office Students who experience or observe discrimination can contact the representatives of the Anti-Discrimination

Office for counselling and support.

BZI Disabled and chronically ill students can seek support from the Counselling Centre for the Inclusion of Disabled Students (BZI) for concerns regarding studying with an impairment.

Botanic Garden The Botanic Garden offers students the opportunity to learn or relax.

University Sports University Sports Bochum offers courses in a variety of sports every semester.

Accommodation

The International Office offers a special service for exchange students. Students can apply for accommodation for the duration of their exchange (I-2 semesters). Since the International Office can only reserve a limited number of rooms for exchange students, early registration and flexibility is useful. Information on the accommodation application can be found here.

Arrival and Enrollment

Enrollment The enrollment at RUB takes place online. The International Office will support you during this process.

Orientation Course

Before every semester we offer an Orientation Course for exchange students including a language course and social activities. The course starts three to four weeks before the lecture period officially begins. Participation in the course costs between €160-240, depending on the program and scope, and there are only a limited number of places. Exchange students, who are eligible, will receive an invitation via e-mail.

International Welcome

At the beginning of each semester, International Welcome is held for international students. There they get a chance to meet other students and receive important information. Exchange students will be informed about this offer via e-mail.

Visa Requirements, Residence Permits & City Registration

Visa

Citizens of the European Union do not need a visa for Germany. Citizens from other countries need to enquire at the German embassy/consulate in their country to see whether visa is required. Incoming students are responsible themselves for obtaining a visa if needed.

Please find more information here.

Residence permit

To apply for a German residence permit after arrival, exchange students must submit the following documents to the local Foreigner's Office:

- ID/passport,
- Current certificate of enrollment (from Ruhr-Universität Bochum)
- Proof of health insurance
- Proof of financial means

These documents need to be uploaded during the online application on the website of the Foreigner's Office.

Further information can be found on the following page under "Non-EU citizens: Applying for the German residence permit". Here you can find more information on financial proof.

City registration

After their arrival, exchange students who stay in Germany for longer than three months, must register at the City Administration Office of the city where they live. Please find more information here.

Health Insurance

European students with the "European Health Insurance Card" do not need to take out additional health insurance in Germany. Students from Turkey can bring the form T/A II or T/A II acquired at their own health insurance company. Students from non-European countries can take out a private or statutory health insurance. You can find more information here.

Bank Account

We recommend that students open a German bank account to make payments of rent and the semester contribution fee easier. A bank account for students is usually free of charge.

The City of Bochum and the Ruhr Area

Bochum is a student city and offers a wide range of cultural and leisure activities. Further information about student life in Bochum and the Ruhr region can be found here.
